

Novena
in honor of
Our Lady's Immaculate Conception

Introduction

This novena is offered by the Franciscan Discipleship Commission of St. Bonaventure Province to help prepare for the celebration of the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception. The booklet is formatted so it can be used year after year. These prayers may be prayed together at table or added to any hour of common prayer. The novena takes place on the nine days before December 8. These prayers are also intended as preparation for the Act of Consecration of the Order to Our Lady (page 9), which is renewed every December 8. On December 8, the novena prayers are not repeated. The prayers for that day begin on page 9.

The “golden thread” of the Franciscan order is our constant love and devotion to our Blessed Lady—an unbroken thread extending from St. Francis to the present. Our promotion and defense of Our Lady’s Immaculate Conception, throughout the centuries, reached fruition in 1854, when Blessed Pope Pius IX, a Secular Franciscan, proclaimed this belief to be a dogma of the Church. To this day, the friars in Rome, at the Basilica of Santi Apostoli, conduct the Solemn Novena of the Immaculate Conception before Our Lady’s feast on December 8.

We are part of this “golden thread.” May this celebration of “our” feast, worthily express our love and devotion as we honor our Heavenly Mother. May every heart be guided by Our Blessed Lady’s gentle hand to her Son, who in his great love, gave us his sinless Mother, as our own.

Novena in Honor of Our Lady's Immaculate Conception

The following are read only on the first day of the novena, November 29th.

Example of St. Francis

Leader: Francis embraced the Mother of Jesus with inexpressible love, since she made the Lord of Majesty a brother to us. He honored her, poured out prayers to her, and offered her his love in a way that no human tongue can express. But what gives us greatest joy is that he entrusted the Order to her, placing under her mantle the sons and daughters to be left behind, that she might protect and cherish them to the end.

Exhortation

Leader: All the friars should fervently venerate the Blessed Virgin Mary in the mystery of the Immaculate Conception as the special protectress of the Order and as our Queen. All the friars shall celebrate that feast everywhere with as much solemnity as possible, on this occasion renewing the consecration of the Order to her; and they should encourage and spread devotion to the mystery of the Immaculate Conception as much as they can.
